Boosters of Dam Asking Audience With Eisenhower

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—Sen. Richard L. Neuberger, D. Ore., asked President Eisenhower today to grant an audience to sponsors of a high federal dam at Hells canyon. Noting that Eisenhower heard Sen. Richard B. Russell, D. Ga., argue the case against his civil rights bill, Neuberger said it was "only fair and proper" that Hells canyon backers have the same opportunity. "Is the President less fervent in his championing of civil rights than in his advocacy of private exploitation at Hells canyon?" Neuberger asked. "Is he less eager for fairness at Hells canyon than on civil rights?"

Opportune

SHOSHONE, July 11—A range fire Wednesday afternoon could not have picked a better place to start.

Lightning started the fire close to a bureau of land management survey crew east of Kimama at 4:30 p.m. Aided by rain that fell after the lightning hit, the survey crew was able to stop the fire almost before it started.

President Eisenhower told a news conference on June 28 scientists had told him that given four or five years more of experimentation, they can turn out a hydrogen bomb "absolutely clean"—of radioactive fallout—meaning one that can be used to knock out a military target without endangering innocent bystanders far away.

Civil Rights Bivouac

Eisenhower Said Agreeable to Troops Ban in "Rights" Tiffs

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—President Eisenhower is willing to amend his civil rights bill to allay any fears troops will be used to force school integration in the South, Republican sources said today. But as of now he will not make any further concessions to Southern foes of the legislation, these sources told the United Press. This ruled out acceptance of a so-called jury trial amendment which Dixie senators are demanding.

The senate moved into its fourth day of debate on the civil rights issue. Leaders scheduled a long session in hopes of reaching a vote early next week on the preliminary motion to consider formally the house-approved administration civil rights bill.

Leaders warned that 11½ hours will be the routine length of sessions for the next few days. Later they may get longer—possibly running round-the-clock.

Sen. Olin D. Johnston, D., S. C., held the floor at the start of today's debate with an 800-page speech charging the bill would "endanger the worst hatred this nation has ever seen since the Civil War."

He began reading the long speech late yesterday, yielding so the senate could quit for the night only when assured he would have the floor again today. He planned a "complete explanation" of the bill, followed by a detailed history of trial by jury from the year 1066 to the present.

Eisenhower's single concession to a short of the compromise some southerners want, Sen. Richard B. Russell, D., Ga., who conferred for 50 minutes yesterday with Eisenhower, told newsmen opponents hoped all of part three would be knocked out of the bill.

Part three would give the government authority to seek injunctions or other civil court action to thwart conspiracies to deprive persons of civil rights. It embodies sections of the Ku Klux Klan act of the reconstruction period. Senate foes contend it would empower the President to use troops to force racial integration in schools and other public places in the south.

Administration supporters deny there is any real basis for the charge. But Eisenhower is willing to add some clarifying language to put an end to the charge, GOP sources said.

U.S. Forecast For Corn and Wheat Given

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—The agriculture department yesterday forecast this year's corn crop at 5,019,912,000 bushels and the wheat crop at 4,009,083,000 bushels.

The corn estimate is 439,380,000 bushels less than last year's production of 3,451,292,000 bushels. It compares also with the 10-year (1945-55) average of 3,120,484,000 bushels.

The wheat forecast is 30,440,000 bushels less than last month's estimate of 970,533,000 bushels for this year's crop. Production was 997,207,000 bushels last year and 1,131,600,000 for the 10-year average.

Both corn and wheat were grown under acreage allotment and soil bank programs designated to help hold down production at a time when surpluses exist.

The winter wheat portion of the wheat crop was forecast at 715,124,000 bushels compared with 735,720,000 indicated a month ago, 734,995,000 produced last year and 824,471,000 for the 10-year average.

All spring wheat was forecast at 224,968,000 bushels compared with 234,813,000 indicated a month ago, 242,219,000 grown last year and 265,529,000 for the 10-year average.

Burnt wheat was put at 30,791,000 bushels compared with 39,007,000 bushels for the 10-year average. (Continued on Page 17, Column 1)

High Court Orders Girard Handed to Japanese for Trial

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—The supreme court today upheld 8-0 the U. S. government's decision to turn over GI William S. Girard to Japan for trial in the killing of a Japanese woman. The high court, in an unsigned opinion, ruled: (1) Delivery of Girard is not prohibited by the constitution; and (2) In the absence of a constitutional bar, the judgment of the executive department should be upheld. Girard is to be turned over to the Japanese under a status of forces agreement, similar to pacts the United States has with some 50 friendly nations.

The superior court held that in the absence of a constitutional violation the "wisdom of the arrangement" is exclusively for the determination of the executive and legislative branches of government.

And, the court said: "We find no constitutional or statutory barrier to the provision as applied here."

Chief Justice Warren read the opinion for the court in a specially called session.

The case had been under consideration by the justices since Monday when they held another special session to hear four hours of argument on it.

The decision was a major victory for the administration, which has contended that refusal to turn Girard over to the Japanese would be a grave threat to America's security.

The administration argument was that if the agreements under which Americans overseas may be tried by foreign courts for off-duty acts were canceled, U. S. forces would have to cancel home.

At the same time, the decision was a setback for forces in congress which contend the U. S. constitution goes with GIs overseas and they must have its full protection.

Girard is accused of killing Mrs. Naka Sakai. She was shot in the back last Jan. 30 on a firing range used by both U. S. and Japanese soldiers.

Japanese authorities charged that Girard enticed the woman to come forward and that he shot her with an empty cartridge case fired from the grenade launcher of his rifle.

Girard denied enticement and contended the shooting was an accident.

Threat Found In Search for Woman Clerk

HOMEDALE, July 11 (AP)—Owyhee county Sheriff Jim Tucker revealed today that a threatening note found in the office of Homedale city clerk and Police Judge Bertha Ehrhart shortly after she disappeared last Monday night.

An intensive search has been underway for the 39-year-old woman since early Tuesday morning. Dragging operations yesterday in the Snake river near Homedale, blood hounds and an airplane failed to turn up any trace of the missing woman.

Note in Purse

Tucker said the note was found in the woman's purse which had been left in her office at the city hall Monday. He didn't indicate why nothing was said about the note until today and also declined any comment or speculation as to the significance or bearing the note could have on the disappearance.

Homedale Police Chief Jim Hill said the note was made up of words clipped from newspapers and magazines and pasted on note paper. It read:

"You have only a few days to live."

Worked at Night

It was established that Mrs. Ehrhart, whose ex-husband lives in Salt Lake City, worked at her office Monday night. Her disappearance was discovered about 4 a.m. Tuesday when a city patrolman noticed her car still parked in front of the building and checked her office. The lights were out but the door was unlocked.

Several books in the office were in disarray and a small radio had been knocked from a shelf and smashed.

White House Views Stated

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—The White House, hitting back at Nikita Khrushchev, said today the States intends to continue its efforts to avoid "mass human destruction" by atomic weapons.

Press Secretary James C. Hagerly called newsmen to his office and dictated this statement:

"It is rather amazing that Mr. Khrushchev would think efforts by American scientists to eliminate dangerous fallout from atomic explosions is 'a stupid thing'."

"The avoidance of mass human destruction in an atomic war is and has been a prime objective of President Eisenhower and his administration, no less than the aim of eliminating the possibility of war itself."

Furnace Gets Flames Blame

A Twin Falls couple blames the Holland Furnace company for their home going up in flames and asks the Twin Falls district court to award them a total of $7,115.60 in damages.

A complaint filed in district court Thursday by Rayborn and Rayborn, attorneys for Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Jodine, charges a Holland Furnace company employee installed a furnace at the home and two hours later the house was destroyed by fire. They blame the blaze, according to the complaint, on the fact that the "hot air outlets were so installed that they became extremely hot and ignited a fire in the adjacent structure of the house" and the automatic shutoff was improperly installed and connected in such a manner that it did not operate and allowed the furnace to become so hot it ignited the house.

The Jodine ask $7,115.60 for loss of the home, personal effects and furniture, loss of time at work, additional lodging, food costs and other items. They also ask costs of the suit.

Music Theme Presented for Kiwanis Talk

Music as the universal language was presented for the Twin Falls Kiwanis club verbally and instrumentally at its regular Thursday luncheon meeting by J. Hill, Twin Falls musician.

Talking and interposing his discussion with musical examples on the organ and piano, Hill noted that "although music nowadays is actually a commodity, bought and sold by the millions of dollars worth, it belongs to everyone who wishes to enjoy it."

"Whether you like western music, rock 'n' roll, 'longhair' or dance music," Hill commented, "it is your property. No one can take away your enjoyment of music, and often we can help someone to an appreciation of music by a little explanation."

Popular adaptations of the classics also aids in the universal knowledge of music, he pointed out. For example, he used Tschikovsky's "Concerto in B Flat Minor."

"The main theme of the concerto," he told the Kiwanis, "was adapted to the popular 'Tomb Raider' and as a result many people through that adaptation came to know and enjoy the record album of the original."

Hill closed his program by playing the Mallot version of "The Lord's Prayer" as an example of how music is used universally over the world for religious purposes.

Visiting Kiwanians were Had Stroud, Klamath Falls, Ore., and William Pierce, Longview, Wash., a former Twin Falls resident who founded the Troy laundry. Pat Patterson and Merle Mooney, both Twin Falls, were guests.

Luke Anderson was inducted into the club by Juneau Shinn. James Reynolds was program chairman.

Congress Has Requests for Prop Changes

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—Administration farm officials have appealed for "urgent" congressional action at this session on Agricultural Secretary Ezra Taft Benson's proposal to lower or end price support floors for cotton.

The appeal brought a cool reception from Chairman Allen J. Ellender, D., La., of the senate agriculture committee and Harold D. Cooley, D., N. C., of the house agriculture committee.

Both legislators received the appeal in a letter dated July 8 from Undersecretary of Agriculture True D. Morse.

Surplus Cut

Morse called attention to an earlier administration warning that rapidly rising exports would reduce the government's cotton surplus and thus set in motion an "escalator formula" in current price support law. The administration said this would automatically raise prices and "create a new surplus."

Under present law, cotton supports must range between 75 and 90 per cent of the "fair price" parity level. Morse said the administration wants the support range changed to 60-90 or 60-90 per cent, preferably 60-90.

No Chance

Ellender said there was "no chance" congress would pass a bill affecting only one farm commodity this year. He said he would not reopen senate cotton hearings.

Cooley said the old agriculture department officials yesterday he has not dropped his opposition to the Benson proposal, but he agreed to reopen cotton hearings before his committee possibly early next week. However, Cooley too said "there's not a chance" congress will approve Benson's proposal.

Morse added in his letter that under the law supports for the crop now growing will be forced up sharply.

"The law will require price supports . . . to be increased above the (previously announced) 28.15 cents per pound level to such an extent as to affect adversely the interests of the cotton producers," he wrote.

Hurt Climber Is Recovered

BISHOP, Calif., July 11 (AP)—A hiker injured in a 40-foot fall in a remote section of the High Sierra was reported in good condition today as a hospital to which he was flown in a helicopter.

The hiker, John Findley Scott, 23, Stockton, received at least seven broken bones as well as bruises, contusions and possible internal injuries.

Despite his injuries, he was more concerned with expressing his thanks to Maj. Jones F. Zeigler of Edwards air force base, pilot of the helicopter, and M/Edt. Arthur J. Jacobsen, the crew chief.

Zeigler snaked his craft through high mountain passes yesterday to pick up Scott at the 11,000-foot level on the eastern slope of the Sierra in Kings Canyon national park.

Scott was injured Sunday when he fell to a ledge while hiking with five companions on 14,000-foot North Palisades peak. He was stranded there until Monday night when expert climbers reached the scene in a hazardous ascent up the mountain.

Ex-GI Gets Light Penalty in Paris

PARIS, July 11 (AP)—A French court yesterday gave a former American soldier a two-year suspended sentence for stabbing his unfaithful French wife to death.

He was Joseph Daigneault, 33, Lewiston, Me., who settled here in 1948 after marrying beautiful dancing teacher Manique Parfuis while on occupation duty in West Germany.

Suicide, Anyone?

A 37-year-old U.S. pilot mans the tiny plane (arrow) that looks like a toy as it wings down a steep Andean hillside on a crop-dusting run. Dave Bump of Springville, N.Y., has in four years become an expert at dusting in Colombia's rugged territory. Bump has logged 20,000 hours dusting over terrain that's a far cry from long, flat U.S. farm areas. Many Colombian farms are high in remote mountain areas.

Pleasure Trip

MADISON, Wis., July 11 (AP)—A newsboy found a Siamese cat answering the description of one lost by Mrs. William D. Walker before she left on a trip to Michigan. At her direction, he put the cat on a plane for Detroit.

Today the cat was back in Madison. It was the wrong one.

PARK WORK DONE

WENDELL, July 11—The Lions club park cleanup committee, under the direction of A. J. Butler, held a work night at the park Tuesday evening.

Reluctant Cow Causes Deaths

COSTA DO VALADO, Portugal, July 11 (AP)—A cow that didn't want to be slaughtered started a chain reaction that resulted in the death of two women and injuries to six other persons. The cow was unhurt.

The six women and two men were trying to slaughter the animal. The cow kicked a container of illuminating gas. The container exploded, and set fire to the building. Two women were killed outright by the explosion and the others were injured in the fire.

One of the men saved himself by pouring wine over his flaming clothing. The cow fled.

TUCKER'S NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

WASHINGTON — The supreme court's failure to spell-out its recent new and strange decision has caused a slowdown in the law enforcement machinery throughout the nation, according to complaints beginning to reach Washington.

As forecast, prosecution and conviction of communists and even common criminals has been handicapped. The criticism comes from judges, police officers, district attorneys and officials only remotely connected with detective and judicial agencies. It falls on receptive ears because so many members of congress are lawyers, or have had experience on the bench or as prosecutors.

Ray Tucker, CORPORATION FEAR RUNNING AFOUL LAW—A similar lag has taken place in the economic field as a result of the anti-trust ruling in the du Pont-General Motors litigation. It is reported that numerous corporations have had to halt important mergers for fear of running afoul of the law as newly interpreted.

Many of the contemplated mergers were of the borderline type. They involved possible acquisition of "vertical" firms—that is, a customer or supplier—and they might have fallen into the illegal category. The court did not specify what percentage of control of a related company constituted an unlawful union. In fact, it referred the du Pont-General Motors matter to the federal district court in Detroit to rule on that question. It may be years before all the complex details can be straightened out. Lawyers are surprised that the Warren tribunal did not deal with this knotty problem.

POLICE OFFICERS BAFLED—Similarly, police officers do not know how to handle prisoners after an arrest. The court failed to answer the simple and natural question of how long prisoners may be held and questioned before arraignment. Since the decision on this subject, both communists and criminals have been prompt to take advantage of the loopholes afforded them.

Local jurists and inferior federal judges are also bewildered. Since none wants to invite a reversal, thereby marred the chances of promotion or, they are playing it safe by showing unusual leniency toward defendants. Taking their cue from the supreme court's strong civil rights philosophy, they are "passing the buck."

Inasmuch as the members of the nation's court of last resort have adjourned and scattered to faraway places until the October session, there will be no opportunity to remedy this legal and industrial slowdown during the summer.

Even then, cases teeming with puzzling and vague interpretations will clutter the docket to such an extent that specific and guiding rules may not be handed down for many months.

Meanwhile, confusion prevails in a realm once justly proud of the patness and precision of the law and its application to human conflicts.

UP TO SUPREME COURT—Several senate and house judiciary subcommittees have written legislation designed to clarify the difficulties created by Chief Justice Earl Warren's group, which was recently assailed on the house floor as a "collection of politicians, professors and ideologists."

As evidence of his own puzzlement, Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., has sat in with the legislators and worked with them under the direct instructions of President Eisenhower.

But congress admittedly can correct only the most obvious defects. Only the supreme court itself can close the gaps which it has opened by its cloudy and indefinite restatement of ancient law and ordered procedure.

The problems will be aggravated and confounded even more seriously, if a decision on the civil rights bill before the senate goes into effect. In fact, the same body which ruled out school segregation by its recent actions, has provided the Southern bloc with its most formidable weapon against enforcement of that historic and revolutionary decision.

POT SHOTS

SHES STILL ALIVE

For years, Mrs. John Leher has been destroying the loadstools growing in her yard. Until this spring she suddenly decided the loadstools were mushrooms.

After making this somewhat startling decision, Connie proceeded to cook some of the loadstools, er, ah, mushrooms. This apparently is a case of mind over matter. Now if she can convince herself the loadstools are really T-bone steaks, she's got it made!

Anyway, Connie points out the loadstools must be mushrooms because she's still very much alive!

PUPS FOR KIDS DEPT.

Dear Pot Shots:

Have a puppy to give to some boy or girl who would like a nice pet. He is about 2 months old, color brown, and will be medium size.

These five pups are part Australian shepherd. Two are males, three females about 2 months old. You can get the pups two miles east of the Murtaugh airport station.

The family has two more dogs, so this 4-year-old German pointer female has to go. She's brown with white spots and good with children. You can get her at 436 Sixth avenue north.

IT AIN'T FUNNY!

Dear Pot Shots:

I don't know why you'll print the humorous notes about leashes for children or so-called brats, but no more on the leash for dogs!

All I can say is these adults (or mothers—who are always suggesting the worst for brats and teenagers) should have a lead around their necks, tied good and tight, and high enough so they can't touch their feet on the ground.

I don't care whether you print this or not. I've read Pot Shots for many years and I suggest you observe a little closer some of these so-called funny notes, read between the lines, like us readers do. Some people just disguise their punches a little.

Mrs. Dwight Thompson

Good homes are needed for five kittens. They're gray and white and "several months" old. The mother is a good mother. You can get the kittens at 221 Washington street south.

Dear Pot Shots:

What is wrong with our Fourth of July, or maybe it's the people. I was watching the parade at Rupert on the Fourth and was stunned to see how little the people appreciate the efforts made by the ones who furnish the floats and other things to make a parade a success.

I remember when I was a kid we were awakened at daylight with a loud blast and how the people would shout, whistle and applaud when the parade started with their beautiful floats and especially when the American flag went by. But I noticed the men didn't care enough about it at Rupert to even raise their hats.

There is an awful lot of work and expense to fix a float and get a parade ready and I think the least we could do is to show them we appreciate their efforts. There seems to be no patriotism anymore. Seems everyone is just out to get and see all there is for free.

GENTLEMAN IN THE FOURTH ROW

WASHINGTON

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON, (NEA)—A touchy subject on capitol hill these days is the matter of 150 million dollars, more or less, which is being spent on new office buildings for senators and representatives.

After making so much noise about the need for cutting down the "big government" budget, the congressmen put themselves on something of a spot. They created the atmosphere for economy in all things great and small.

Sen. Paul Douglas, D., Ill., even carried this so far that he made a speech in protest against the $38,000 spent for redecorating the offices of a new assistant secretary of interior and his two assistants on fish and wildlife.

But this is fishfood and birdseed when compared to the new layouts for the congressmen—five-room suites for senators, three rooms for representatives. All the money isn't going to be spent this year. But by 1961 or so, each of the 531 congressmen will have had an average of over $38,000 spent on him for office space.

When word of this and of $1,000 hand-tooled desks and $216 posture chairs with built-in vibrators being sent back home, the constituents started to protest that it was too fancy.

Rep. Robert E. Jones, D., Ala., of the house public works committee came to the defense of the senators with an explanation that they would all have simple business furniture.

This building will house 40 senators and 12 committees. When this building is opened next January, there will be the job of reconditioning the old senate office building No. 1. Its 95 three and four-room suites will be converted into 50 five-room suites and committee rooms. No estimates yet on what this will cost.

Then, to provide for future growth, the senators want to buy a block and a half of adjacent property. The half block which contains historic old Belmont house, now women's party headquarters, will cost five or six million dollars. The full block contains Carroll Arms hotel and the site on which Veterans of Foreign Wars wanted to build a new headquarters. This could cost another eight or 10 million dollars.

Over on the house side of capitol hill there's a complicated building project that may cost 100 million dollars, though this money will be spent over the next five years or more.

Foundations contracts on a newest house office building—No. 3—will be let this year. This building will cost around 64 million dollars when congressmen move in in 1961.

Congress is also buying five more squares of the present old and new house office buildings. These sites are estimated to cost around eight million dollars.

On one of these blocks stands one of Washington's newest hotels, the Congressional. Congress is buying this hotel and has deposited one and a half million dollars for title. It will be used as offices while old and new house office buildings are being remodeled—at an estimated cost of 18 million dollars.

Then the hotel will be torn down to make space for something else in future years. Just what hasn't been decided.

There's only one note of real economy about this rebuilding of capitol hill for future generations of tourists to gaze at in the project to facilitate the capitol, so as to extend the building under the great dome, has apparently been abandoned. It would have cost another $2 million.

Formosan Planes Have Leaflet Run

TAIPEI, Formosa, July 11 (AP)—The Nationalist Chinese air force said today that its planes dropped a million copies of a John Foster Dulles speech over the communist Chinese mainland Tuesday night.

The speech was the one delivered by the secretary of state at San Francisco June 28 re-affirming the U. S. stand against recognition of the communist Peking regime.

How to Tell Fruit and Other Stories

An old acquaintance, Judge Jacob M. Braude, Chicago, is one of the best speakers I have ever heard. Along with it, he interlards his conversation with spicy outdoor observations. Well, you be the judge!

A big gun is frequently an individual of small caliber and immature burs.

A diplomat is one who can bring home the bacon without spilling the beans.

Teacher: "If your mother gave you a large apple and a small one and told you to divide it with your brother, which would you give him?"

Johnnie: "Do you mean my little brother, or my big one?"

President Coolidge once invited some Vermont friends to dine at the White House. They were worried about their table manners so decided to do everything Coolidge did. The meal passed smoothly until coffee was served and Coolidge poured his into a saucer. The guests followed suit. Then he added sugar and cream. The visitors did likewise. Then Coolidge leaned over and gave his to the cat.

An accordion, says the judge, is an instrument invented by the man who couldn't decide how big the one was that got away.

A gold-digger: A girl who knows a good thing when she sees it.

A fly fisher: A guy who walks several miles carrying 25 things but who has junior bring him an empty tray.

Two farmers brought their fruit to a farmer's market and were selling it across the aisle from each other at the same price and doing very little business. After a short conversation, one man nearly doubled his prices. Fruit in the less expensive stall began to sell rapidly—and its owner restocked from his friendly competitor. This way both farmers sold nearly everything they had within two hours.

A flea and an elephant walked side by side over a little bridge. Said the flea to the elephant after they had crossed it: "Brother, you sure did make that thing state."

This life, says the judge in his latest book, Braude's Second Encyclopedia of Stories, Questions and Anecdotes, is a round-and-round affair. People eat animals, animals eat vegetables, vegetables eat animals, animals eat vegetables, animals eat microscopes, and microscopes eat us. But the cannibal takes the short cut.

Men are like fish; neither would get into trouble if they kept their mouths shut.

SOVIET LAMENTS

The Russians don't like the talk from President Eisenhower and top U. S. scientists that in a few years we will be able to produce an H-bomb almost "clean" of radioactive fallout. It doesn't fit with their propaganda against the continuance of nuclear tests.

The sad laments of a Soviet newspaper that the Americans are going to develop a "notorious clean bomb with which they can destroy mankind with a greater amount of precision" have a hypocritical ring.

If a clean bomb should be perfected, then the hydrogen device becomes simply a colossal explosive capable of destruction on an unprecedented mass scale. In this respect it differs thereafter only in degree from any other explosive ever employed in warfare.

The Russians have the largest land army on earth, and certainly the biggest if not the most powerful air force. Beyond doubt this military establishment is well equipped with conventional arms—whatever may be Russia's stock of nuclear weapons.

The human beings who would be killed by the conventional bullets, shells and bombs used by this army in any future war would be just as dead as anyone killed by an H-bomb, clean or otherwise.

What the Soviet Union seems to be saying, as others have tried to say before, is that it is all right to kill people singly or in modest hundreds or thousands, but it is wicked to kill them in the tens or hundreds of thousands.

Russia's bleeding for humanity is phony. What the Kremlin really dislikes is the fact that the United States has a commanding advantage in a field that is so important as to constitute an effective bar to all Soviet designs of major military conquest.

Leaving aside all arguments of moral character and of damage to innocent millions through fall-out, it is plain that a clean bomb would increase our advantage. It would mean we could use nuclear devices tactically with no fear that our own troops and our own population would be fatally contaminated by lethal side effects.

We would much prefer not to use them at all, nor conventional weapons either. We genuinely want effective disarmament. But there is nothing contradictory in going ahead to perfect our weapons at the same time we discuss disarmament.

For, much as we desire peace, we must be prepared for war, prepared to help protect ourselves and the whole free world, until that moment when real, enforceable disarmament comes into actual being.

VIEW OF OTHERS

BELOW NORMAL TOLL

Although millions of Americans were on the highways over the long week-end from Wednesday evening July 3, through Sunday midnight, July 7, the toll is certain to be less than forecasted—and even less than the normal toll for such a period.

The National Safety Council has estimated 535 persons would die in traffic crashes from 8 p. m. Wednesday to midnight Sunday. At last reports there had been only 428 deaths. Some fatalities will be added to this figure as critically injured die or belated reports of accidents in isolated areas come in. But it is certain that the toll will not even approach the council's gloomy estimate.

In fact the toll likely will be considerably below what would have been expected in any 102-hour period in the year—even though it did not include a holiday nor the extensive summer vacation and picnic driving which adds to the traffic hazard.

Last year on the average there were about 108 traffic deaths per day. This would mean for the four days of Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday (which includes the more dangerous week-end period) about 436 deaths. Added to this must be the fatalities expected in the six hours of Wednesday evening included in the holiday period. More than a third of the day's fatalities normally occur in these six hours so another 40 or so deaths must be added to the 436. This makes a total of about 476 deaths which should on the average occur in a 102-hour period.

The Fourth week-end record is, therefore, on all counts exceptionally good nationally. The Utah record isn't quite that good. We had two fatalities and on the average we would expect to or at the most three. Utah's toll, however, does look good compared with Idaho's four and Wyoming's five—Salt Lake Tribune.

THE SPEEDIOT

Have you spotted a speediot lately? He's the motoring fool who drives so fast he can't read speed limit signs—or maybe he can't read under any conditions. You'll find him on almost any street or highway. And if you're smart, you'll give him plenty of room.

The speediot has certain characteristics that identify him:

First, he's a man of faith—total faith in the mechanical perfection of every part of his vehicle, and in the speed and accuracy of his own reactions.

Second, his right foot is 50 times heavier than his brain—and used much more often.

Third, he's a hermit at heart—drives as if he's convinced he's the only one on the highway; and if not, he'll soon get rid of the others.

Fourth, he loves service station men, garage operators, doctors, nurses and funeral directors—tries to keep them all busy.

Fifth, he has a sub-conscious eagerness to be the most important figure in a funeral procession—but too often gives the same honor to someone who is totally unwilling.

He's a menace, this speediot. And everyone would be happier and safer if he were shot—or behind bars—Nampa Free Press.

WHERE ARE THEY?

While we took a dim view of a couple of weeks ago of proposals to put parents in jail as a means toward curbing juvenile delinquency, we agree heartily that parental responsibility cannot be ignored. Thus we feel the Portland police department, harassed by a wave of "teen-age" violence that calls to mind conditions in larger cities, is on the right track. There the plan will be to telephone the parents as soon as a child is picked up. Parents will be asked if they know where their children are—or have been—and if they have knowledge of their children's companions. Many, probably, will not have had any idea that little Junior has been busy beating up on younger boys.

The plan calls to mind another program undertaken by a PTA parent in New York state. Just to see what would happen, she began calling parents to ask the simple question, "Do you know where your children are right now?" Frequently, she reported, a child answered the telephone. And frequently the child didn't know where his parents were.

State Officer Will Not Get Monthly Pay

BOISE, July 11 (AP)—A ruling by the Idaho attorney general yesterday barred the state from paying $100 per month salary authorized him by the 1957 legislature.

Assistant Attorney General William C. Roden said the state constitution prohibits salary increases for state officials from taking effect for those officers in office when the salaries are approved by the legislature.

Roden's opinion answered a query from Robert B. Hodge, Gov. Robert E. Smylie's administrative assistant, who asked about the validity of a senate bill which appropriated $2,400 for the purpose of paying a monthly salary of $100 to the lieutenant governor.

The bill was among several authorizing salary increases for state officials, but only the measure dealing with the lieutenant governor was to take effect July 1, 1957. All the other bills were effective with the next term of office for the elected officials.

Salary Set

Roden said that the Idaho constitution set salary for the lieutenant governor at the same rate as that of the speaker of the house. This would amount, under current law, to $15 per day plus expenses.

The constitution, according to Roden, also authorizes the legislature to increase or decrease the salary of state officials, but it specifically bars the increases or decreases from taking effect for officers then in office.

This is the provision that Roden said barred payment of the $100 per month to Larsen.

Outdoor Meeting Held by Jaycees

BUHL, July 11—Jaycee members and their wives had an outdoor meeting and picnic at Buhl, Tuesday evening at the home of O. L. Smith.

John Crawford, chairman of the Jaycee golf tournament, announced that Art Adams and Joe Koch will represent the Buhl Jaycees at the state Jaycee golf tournament July 19-21 at Lewiston.

Dean Joslin was named chairman and Smith, assistant chairman, of the project of getting advertising for the Twin Falls county fair programs. The group discussed sponsoring the district softball tournament but no action was taken.

The next meet will be held July 23 at the Clear Lakes power plant.

PAPER AND AIR

President Eisenhower's program for greater air traffic safety, a comprehensive plan of necessity requiring gradual steps, is still a paper project in a nation whose airplanes are saturated.

Meantime, the airlines and their pilots in cooperation have quietly begun to operate a new safety system in the crowded triangle of air routes from Washington to New York to Chicago and thence to Washington.

Above the level of 9,500 feet—a zone occupied by virtually all four-engine planes of the more modern types—the pilots hereafter will fly at all times by instrument flight rules. This means they will be under the constant guidance of government air traffic control centers.

The object, of course, is to minimize the prospect of mid-air collisions on the pattern of last year's disastrous Grand canyon mishap. At that time, one plane was following instrument flight rules but the other was using so-called visual flight rules, an alternative considerably handicapped by the poor vision afforded in most of today's pilot cabins.

This voluntary move toward air safety is a signal evidence of responsibility on the part of the airlines and their pilots. Not only should it promote safer travel now, but it should encourage all advocates of the President's broad, long-range plan to press for its swift adoption.

FBI AND SUPREME COURT

Of all the recent decisions by the supreme court on individual rights, the one of more concern to the government is the Jencks case ruling giving defendants in criminal and espionage cases certain access to FBI files.

The court's decision said that where defense counsel is seeking to attack the credibility of witnesses it may search the files looking for discrepancies between information supplied to the FBI and sworn testimony in the courtroom.

Mindful of the FBI's long-standing insistence that much of its police work would be hampered if it were forced to disclose confidential sources of information, methods of procedure and the like, the supreme court said the government would have to take its choice between showing the files or not producing them.

Reports from the capital say the FBI is threatening to drop out of such cases altogether rather than permit examination of its files by defendants.

The administration is meantime advancing legislation designed to give trial judges the authority to decide in secret what part if any of FBI reports should be allowed to the defense. Without action on some such measure, a good share of the government's work in criminal prosecution seems to stand in danger.

Graham Takes Umbrage Over "Cost" Charge

NEW YORK, July 11 (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham said last night he was peeved at a religious magazine that said the money being spent on this New York crusade to save souls is far too much.

"I wish the editor of that magazine would calculate for me how much he thinks it's worth to have one soul," Graham said, with more than a trace of indignation in his voice.

"The magazine can say what it wants to say. What I know is that Jesus said that if one soul is saved from hell for His kingdom then it's worth the whole world."

Critical Although Graham did not mention the magazine by name, he apparently referred to the Christian Century, an influential Protestant publication that has been highly critical of the evangelist.

Among its most recent charges has been that the million dollars being spent on the Billy Graham New York crusade is money expended for a cause of doubtful worth.

Graham taking issue with the "religious magazine" was a rare thing for him. It is his practice to refuse comment on most criticisms against him, on the ground that "there's already too much discussion among Protestant faiths and I don't want to add to it."

In a sermon on soul-saving, Graham told a Madison Square garden audience of 18,000, that it pained him to see that "very few Christians seem concerned over the thousands of lost souls all around them."

Cites Example "Take the case of one lost body—like that of the little boy in the well—and the newspapers are full of it. Everyone in America is gravely concerned, everyone cares," the 38-year-old revivalist said.

"Of course it's wonderful the little boy was saved. But why don't people care about lost souls, how peculiar are our values!"

Educators Slate Three-Day Meet

BOISE, July 11 (AP)—State Superintendent of Public Instruction Alton Jones said today a state leadership conference in Sun Valley July 24-26 will feature a discussion of problems in education of handicapped and gifted children.

Featured speaker, Jones said, would be Dr. Eli Bowers of the California state department of education, who is a national authority on handicapped children's education problems.

Western Germany Will Trim Tariffs

BOON, Germany, July 11 (AP)—West Germany has decided to cut customs tariffs on imported industrial goods by 25 per cent Aug. 15, it was announced today.

A government spokesman said the move was aimed at lowering prices of these goods inside Germany and reducing Germany's overwhelming credit balance abroad.

Councilmen Make License Switches

CHUBBOCK, July 11 (AP)—Two village board members have transferred their liquor-by-the-drink licenses to their wives in the hope that they may continue serving on the board.

R. C. Hillman and Ernest L. Frasure have relinquished their state county and village licenses to their wives. The two Chubbock board members were among several in Idaho who were notified by state liquor law enforcement Director Warner C. Mills that a state law forbids public officials from holding permits for selling liquor by the drink.

"It is ridiculous," Frasure commented. Hillman added: "It's all community property anyway."

Zhukov Climbs to Top of Red Party to Equal Khrushchev

By United Press Soviet Russia appears to have acquired a new chief co-equal in its collective leadership.

Nikita S. Khrushchev has been recognized as the chief co-equal since Georgi M. Malenkov was ousted as premier in 1955.

Now Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov seems to have moved in beside Khrushchev as chief co-equal No. 2.

That implies that until there is another blow-up in Soviet leadership, Khrushchev and Zhukov will direct policy in both domestic and foreign affairs.

There are 13 other co-equals in the enlarged ruling presidium of the Russian communist party. But Khrushchev and Zhukov will be top men.

have had six of the votes in what was then an 11-man presidium. Khrushchev saved himself partly because, as first secretary, he was able to force a meeting of the full 126-man central committee of the Communist party. Khrushchev had a big majority in that.

But it is being said, apparently correctly, that Zhukov played the decisive part. He is reported to have come out fully in support of Khrushchev in the presidium, and to have emphasized that the army was with him.

Zhukov is regarded as a conservative man, who as a soldier knows fully the catastrophe Russia would face in event of a third world war and who is inclined to be as friendly with the Western countries as a dedicated communist can be.

Zhukov and President Eisenow became good friends when, as supreme commanders of the Russian and allied armies, they were in Berlin together after the end of World war II. They even entered into a brief correspondence later. It was suggested that Zhukov might play a big part in easing West-East tension.

But it is difficult to discount the fact that Zhukov has been a communist since 1919. He was made an alternate member of the party's central committee in 1952. He became a full member after Josef Stalin's death in 1953. He also was made deputy defense minister. He later was made an alternate member of the presidium, and he became defense minister in 1955. Now he is a full member of the presidium. He seems to rank equally with Khrushchev.

Only time will tell whether Zhukov will work for better relations with the United States and its allies. Time will tell also how well Zhukov and Khrushchev can work along together, and whether it might occur to Zhukov that he would like to be the sole No. 1 co-equal and thus get into a battle with Khrushchev for leadership.

Files Opened On Evidence For Incident

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—The secret defense department file on William S. Girard shows that the army specialist claimed he fired from the hip and over the head of the Japanese woman he killed.

Girard also said he did not believe the empty cartridge he fired would hurt anyone even if it hit them.

But the file also contains a sworn statement by Girard's army buddy, Spec. 3/6 Victor M. Nickel, that Girard fired from the shoulder after aiming directly at the woman.

A copy of the secret defense department file—10 pages in all—was made available to the United Press yesterday.

According to the defense department report, Girard also claimed he was ordered to get the Japanese woman by a machine gun he and Nickel were guarding at the time of the incident. He said, however, he was not ordered to shoot at them.

Army investigators said they could locate no evidence to support Girard's claim he was ordered to drive the Japanese away.

Nickel said the Japanese civilians were just collecting empty brass cartridge cases "so there was no need of chasing them away."

Nickel, according to the report, said he threw some of the empty shells towards the Japanese to entice them to come closer. He said Girard did not throw any of the shells.

Girard did, however, beckon and call to the people," Nickel said, "and he did aim directly at them when he fired."

Girard fired twice, once at an old man and then later at the woman, according to the secret file.

The report quoted Nickel as admitting he lied at first to protect Girard by saying Girard fired only one shot, and also that he fired from the hip.

But Nickel later said he was "tired of trying to cover up, and I want to tell the complete truth."

Withdrawal of Timber Lands Of State Eyed

BOISE, July 11 (AP)—The bureau of land management announced yesterday that it will consider at a public hearing the proposed withdrawal of about 31,000 acres of national forest land near the headwaters of the Salmon river in Idaho.

The hearing has been set for Sept. 19 and 20, in Boise.

The land withdrawal was asked by the United States fish and wildlife service. If approved, the withdrawal would remove the lands from entry under mining laws.

The withdrawal is needed, the agency said, to protect valuable salmon and steelhead spawning areas, "including the only known spawning area for sockeye salmon in the Snake river drainage."

Lands included in the proposed withdrawal are in the Bear valley and Marsh creek areas of the Middle fork of the Salmon river and in the Valley creek, Redfish, Pettit and Alturas lakes and the headwater reaches of the Salmon river. The area is within the Clearfork, Boise, Salmon and Sawtooth national forests.

In an announcement released by the bureau of land management, the agency said the hearing will be held "to give local citizens and other interested persons an opportunity to hear all the facts about the proposed withdrawal and to express their opinions on it."

Warehouses Are Razed by Blaze

PENDLETON, Ore., July 11 (AP)—An early morning fire yesterday destroyed two large warehouses and an old flour mill here.

Thousands of cases of beer were reported lost with damage to contents estimated at more than $225,000.

The blaze broke out about 4 a.m. and was still smoldering hours later. All available equipment was rushed to the blaze and volunteer firemen were called out.

Cause of the blaze was not known.

FIRE SAID MAN-CAUSED
BOISE, July 11 (AP)—Authorities listed as apparently man-caused a fire which burned five acres of rangeland yesterday afternoon. The blaze burned in foothills about 10 miles northwest of Boise.

Strikes Delaying Building Project

NEW YORK, July 11 (AP)—Metropolitan New York's 400-million-dollar-a-year construction industry today faced one of the worst crises in its history.

Leaders in the industry said almost all work may be halted by the end of the week as the result of strikes.

The construction industry here, hard hit by the nationwide strike in cement manufacturing plants, has strikes of its own and threats of more.

Inspection Bill Is Passed by House

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—The house has passed a bill to require federal inspection of poultry at slaughtering plants to protect consumers against the marketing of unsanitary or diseased birds.

The measure was approved yesterday by a landslide vote of 331 to 23. It was returned to the senate for action on house amendments.

The bill would impose federal inspection controls on poultry dealers similar to those to which meat packers have been subjected for 51 years. The agriculture department estimated it would cost taxpayers 10 million dollars a year.

Boy Not Missing, Took Wrong Fork

Eugene Gillette, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gillette, Kimberly, wasn't exactly lost in the south hills Tuesday night but he didn't know where he was for the greater part of the night.

Gillette, a Kimberly high school senior, is spending the summer working for a lumberman in the Minidoka division of the Sawtooth national forest. Tuesday evening he and Warren Scoth, another student working for the lumberman, went out along Goose creek. They separated and Gillette decided to return to camp alone.

He became confused about directions and, locating a sheep camp, asked how to get back to the lumber camp. The shepherd gave directions but Gillette took the wrong fork in the road. He walked the greater part of the night and when he could see Oakley in the distance he decided he had been going the wrong direction.

He was retracing his steps and was about three miles from camp Wednesday morning when he was found by companions.

It is estimated there are more than 10,000 species of destructive insects in the United States.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 11 (AP)—Florence Quartara—international opera star—is giving up her professional career for a role in private life as wife and mother.

The lyric soprano called in reporters yesterday and disclosed happily that she and basso Italo Tajo were married secretly last August. Now they're expecting a baby.

Death of Woman Remains Mystery

POCATELLO, July 11 (AP)—Bannock county officials today were having much trouble establishing the cause of death of a woman found in a canal headgate Tuesday as they were learning her name.

X-rays of the woman's body turned up no clues as to what killed her. Coroner Allen Manning said further pathological examination would prove futile because of the decomposed state of the body.

The woman's fingerprints were forwarded to the FBI for possible identification.

Surgeon Avers Smoke Filters Are Pure Hoax

DENVER, July 11 (AP)—A New Orleans surgeon and cancer specialist told the 11th annual Rocky Mountain cancer conference yesterday that he often asked whether filter cigarettes help anyone, and here is his answer: "They do. They help sell more cigarettes. He called them a 'hoax'."

The surgeon-specialist, Dr. Alton Ochsner, said the use of filters does not alter the relationship between smoking and the growing incidence of lung cancer.

Ochsner said that cancer of the lung is "now the most frequent form of cancer in men—by far." Ochsner, a long-time critic of cigarette smoking and tobacco companies, said he recently tested filters on four popular brands of cigarettes by comparing the amount of tar collected in their smoke with a fifth unfiltered brand.

"You couldn't tell the difference," he said. "Filters are purely a hoax." He said that "nicotine and tar" were the two basic things wrong with cigarettes.

"Nicotine produces heart and blood vessel disease and tar can produce cancer," he said. "It's possible to grow tobacco without nicotine, but it isn't used because that's what gives the smoker a boost."

He claimed the cigarette industry "has done nothing about removing tar from cigarettes."

Ochsner compared the use of cigarettes to the use of narcotics. "You've seen it," he said. "The man trying to stop smoking in ten days for 10 days. After 10 days he isn't addicted anymore, but he still doesn't know what to do with his hands."

Navy Jet Slates Speed Mark Try

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—A navy jet fighter will attempt to set a new transcontinental speed record next week.

The attempt will be made over a 2,450-mile course between Los Angeles and New York by marine Maj. J. H. Glenn, New Concord, O., in an F8U Crusader. Glenn hopes to make an average speed of about 700 miles an hour.

The present transcontinental speed record is 657.5 miles an hour. It was set on March 9, 1955, by air force Lieut. Col. Robert Scott in an F-84F Thunderstreak fighter which was refueled in the air twice during the run.

Joint Amphibious Maneuvers Slated

Prisoner Has Approval for 'Extra' Work

BOISE, July 11 (AP)—Ada County Judge M. Oliver Koelsch yesterday granted John Davidson, Boise, serving an 18-month county jail sentence for negligent homicide, permission to follow his private employment during the daylight hours of his jail term.

The permission was granted under terms of a law passed by the 1957 legislature which allows certain prisoners to continue their private employment and turn their wages over to jail officials. Part of the wages will cover Davidson's room and board, half of the balance will go to the county and Davidson will be allowed to keep the rest.

He is employed by a local neon sign company. In his petition for permission to work during the balance of his jail term he said he received a wage of $125 per hour.

Under the strict conditions of Koelsch's order Davidson will be released from 7 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. daily. He will be required to work "diligently" at his job and will be forbidden to "consume intoxicating beverage... operate a motor vehicle and... must violate no federal, state or local penal law, ordinance or regulation."

Davidson also was ordered not to socialize nor enter any private residence other than in the course of his employment.

Davidson originally was convicted of involuntary manslaughter in connection with the auto-pedestrian death of Anna Louise Buntin in March of 1955. An appeal to the supreme court resulted in the reduced charge and a reduction in sentence from 10 years in the state prison to 18 months in the county jail.

Blaze Doused

BOISE, July 11 (AP)—Fire in grass-land north of Boise burned dangerously close to a residential section early today but firemen extinguished it before it touched any homes.

The bureau of land management said the fire burned over 15 to 18 acres of grassland.

Final Results Announced in Airplane Race

PHILADELPHIA, July 11 (AP)—Mrs. Alice Roberts, Phoenix, Ariz., and her co-pilot, Mrs. Iris Critchell, Palos Verdes Estates, Calif., today were named winners of the 11th trans-continental Powder Puff derby.

The lady pilots averaged a top ground speed of 188 miles per hour over the 2,567-mile route from San Mateo, Calif., to North Philadelphia airport.

Mrs. Roberts, who has more than 550 hours flying time, placed second in the annual all-women race the past two years. Mrs. Roberts, mother of two children, is the wife of a pilot. Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Critchell will receive a trophy and $800 first place prize.

The second team was Mrs. Doris Eacret, Elko, Nev., and Mrs. Jean Parker Rose, Arcadia, Calif. Their average ground speed was 138 miles

Air Force Calls Off Rocket Plan

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—The air force today canceled development of its Navaho intercontinental guided missile, a weapon designed to fly 1,700 miles an hour.

Air force Secretary James H. Douglas attributed the cancellation to a limited budget.

The air force was not able immediately to say how much money it had spent on the Navaho project, but a well-informed official said it was around $60 million dollars.

per hour. Second place winners will receive $800 and a trophy.

Mrs. Barbara Kierman, Andover, Mass., a helicopter test pilot, and her co-pilot, Mrs. Esther Gardner, Waterford, Conn., placed third. Mrs. Kierman averaged 189 miles per hour but her handicap was 169, giving her a total score of 204. Mrs. Roberts, with a handicap of 162, had a total score of 265.

The winners were to be based on total points determined through flying time, general performance and handicaps.

Lighter Load

MAYWOOD, Ill., July 11 (AP)—A heavy mail carrier who tried to deliver the neighborhood letters the hard way ran afoul of the law here.

Police said the postman, James Williams, admitted yesterday he dumped the mail in the river because it was a hot day and his mailbag was too heavy.

Rams Entered in Sales Set Aug. 7

PILER, July 11—Inspection of rams for the state ram sale and show set here Aug. 7 has been completed, says Robert Blustock, chairman.

Listings have been segregated to select the better kind.

The event, sponsored by the Idaho

Wool Growers association, serves as a reliable clearing house to exhibit and compare a large number of superior-type rams, said Blustock. This is a "show counter" of the select million-type breeding rams well known for qualities which has placed Idaho among states producing choice fat lambs.

Entries here come from 49 Idaho men who are exhibiting 665 rams. Each offering will be shown in separate pens on the fairgrounds here Aug. 7.

Target Raised For Work on Atom Current

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—A group of Democratic members of the senate-house atomic energy committee were reported Wednesday to have raised their goal for federal construction of reactors for power plants in connection with electric cooperatives at Elk River, Minn., Big Rapids, Mich., Piqua, O., and Chugach, Alaska, rather than for the co-ops themselves to build the reactors with borrowed federal funds.

These reactor proposals also were added to long-time goals by some of the committee Democrats: another dual-purpose reactor to produce power and plutonium at Hanford, Wash., and a British-type gas-cooled power reactor, reportedly to be located at Arco.

Schools Inspected At Board Meeting

WENDELL, July 11—Grade and high schools and the new school grounds were inspected prior to the school board meeting Monday evening.

Accompanying board members on the tour were E. A. Taylor, electrician; E. E. Parr, fire chief; Bill Von Weller, plumber, and J. J. Stickle, Ray Petersen and Fred Gibson, carpenters.

Plumbing at the grade school is in need of repairs. Basement rooms heretofore used for classrooms were declared inadequate for classrooms and will be used for storage.

At the high school building, the science room was listed as not being adequate. Repair on the old part of the building was discussed.

School district, hot lunch, student body, and all other records handled in the school district will be sent to Thomas Mahan, Jerome, for an audit.

Window shades on the east and west sides of the grade school will be replaced.

Tuition received from Orchard Valley was $9,588.18, leaving a balance of $5,425.09 due for the 1956-57 school term.

Low Bids Listed On Ft. Hall Job

PORTLAND, July 11 (AP)—A new and apparently low bid for work at the Ft. Hall-Indian reservation in Idaho has been received, the bureau of land management said yesterday.

The agency said E. D. Anderson of Pocatello submitted an offer of $328,645. It was sent in by mail and was postmarked in time to be considered, the bureau said.

Earlier it had been announced that the apparent low bid was $462,729, submitted by W. R. Cahoon Construction company of Pocatello. The project involves construction of a pump house and other facilities at the Portneuf station on the reservation.

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—The nation's civilian employment reached a record June level of 66½ million, the government announced today. It was an increase of 1,300,000.

The peak figure for the month was attributed to the summer employment of students, since further reductions were reported in a number of "hard goods" manufacturing industries.

Court Decides Jewish Couple To Keep Hildy

MIAMI, Fla., July 11 (AP)—Pretentious Hildy McCoy, who was born in the Roman Catholic faith, yesterday became the legal daughter of a Jewish man and his wife who have been the only parents she ever knew.

There was a possibility, however, that Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ellis, who asked a kidnapping charge when they fled with 6-year-old Hildy from Massachusetts to Florida, may have another legal battle on their hands to keep her.

After Circuit Judge John W. Prunty declared Wednesday that Hildy is the legal daughter of the Ellises, attorneys for the natural mother, Mrs. Marjorie McCoy Doherty, said the decision might be appealed to the Florida or the U. S. supreme court.

The decision on further court action will be up to Mrs. Doherty, who does not want Hildy herself but wants her placed in a Catholic home.

"The primary concern of this court is the present and future welfare and happiness of the minor," Judge Prunty said. He added that the separation of Hildy from the Ellises "might result in irreparable damage to her."

Ellis, a 45-year-old Brookline, Mass., clothing salesman, and his wife took Hildy when she was 10 days old, allegedly with the consent of her mother.

When they applied for legal adoption, they were turned down under a Massachusetts law requiring that children be adopted by persons of the same religious faith. Ordered to turn the child over to Massachusetts welfare authorities, they brought her to Florida instead. They were indicted on a kidnapping charge but Florida's Gov. LeRoy Collins refused to let Massachusetts authorities take them.

Ellis has promised to let Hildy choose her own religion when she is older. Judge Prunty's decision was based partly on this promise and partly on a report of Florida welfare investigators who "recommended that the child be given to the Ellises."

Meat Packers Show Gain in 1956 Earnings

CHICAGO, July 11 (AP)—Earnings of the meat packing industry improved in 1956, the American Meat Institute reported today.

But the institute's annual survey showed that the industry's earnings still were "well below" those of other food processing and manufacturing industries.

The report showed that net earnings totaled an estimated $14 million dollars, a gain of 11 million dollars over 1955.

"Because of the extremely competitive nature of the industry, the margin for profit has remained quite narrow," the institute said.

The 1956 earnings equaled one cent per dollar of sales, or 84 cents per dollar of net worth, the survey showed.

Last year's earnings of all U. S. manufacturing corporations averaged 63 cents on sales and 12 cents on net worth.

Pakistan Pledges Alliance to U.S.

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—Prime Minister Huseyn Shaheed Suhrawardy of Pakistan today reaffirmed his nation's decision to remain firmly on the side of the United States in the cold war.

"We are allies," the Asian leader told Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who welcomed him on arrival for a three-day series of talks with President Eisenhower and other officials.

Pakistan, the world's largest Moslem nation, has scored neutrality to align itself with the Western democracies in the Southeast Asia treaty organization.

The talks are designed to strengthen military and economic ties between the United States and Pakistan.

Weather, Production Controls, Soil Bank Combine to Cut Crop Prospects

WASHINGTON, July 11 (AP)—A combination of adverse weather, production controls, and the soil bank may cut the 1957 total crop to its lowest level since 1951.

The agriculture department said in the first production report for the season that floods and excessive rain damaged prospects for corn, cotton, soybeans, and other crops. The adverse weather also forced harvesting delays resulting in reduced yields of many early ripening fall grains.

But the report issued yesterday said "some improvement in prospects is possible if favorable conditions predominate for growth, maturity, and harvest" the rest of the season.

"Soil moisture has been abundant to excessive over much larger areas than last year," it pointed out. "This abundance could cut later losses from drought and heat. Irrigation water supplies are best in recent years."

This comment seemed to indicate agriculture department officials believe this year's total crop could be larger than the report estimated. The report, based on July 1 prospects, said total farm output could drop to six per cent below last season.

The basic crops of wheat, corn, cotton, peanuts, rice, and tobacco still are under acreage allotments and marketing quotas, which undoubtedly will cut production some, although not much, because of the increase in acreage yields.

Aside from the weather, some reduction will result from the 600-million-dollar soil bank program under which farmers are paid not to produce certain crops. Soil bank lands total 28 million acres, although the total crop acreage of 333 million acres for this year is only 13 million acres below that of last year.

The department predicted there would be lower production of wheat, corn, rice, tobacco, flaxseed, beans, and peas. It forecast increased production of oats, barley, rye, hay, soybeans, sweet potatoes, sugarcane, sugarbeets, and hops.

The department estimated a corn crop of 3,011,912 bushels—13 per cent below last year and three per cent below average. This would be the lowest since 1951.

The sharp decline was attributed to the soil bank, wet weather, and a trend toward lower acreage outside the main corn belt. The yield was estimated at 41.7 bushels compared with last year's record of 43.4 and the average of 37.8. The planted acreage was estimated 73,600,000 acres, nearly five million acres below 1956 and 10,400,000 acres below average.

The corn belt yield was forecast at 2,300,000,000 bushels—down 400 million bushels from last year.

Wheat production was forecast at 940 million bushels, which would be 31 million bushels less than forecast June 1 and six per cent less than the 1956 crop of 997 million bushels. Winter wheat was estimated at 715 million bushels and spring wheat at 225 million bushels. The wheat acreage for harvest was estimated at 43,200,000 acres—the smallest since 1904 and 13 per cent less than the acreage harvested in 1956.

The oats crop was estimated at 1,374,000,000 bushels, 10 per cent more than last year. Barley production was estimated at a record 430 million bushels, 18 per cent above last year and 51 per cent above average. Rye was estimated at 26,500,000 bushels, or about 23 per cent greater than the 1956 crop and 20 per cent above average.

Soybean acreage was forecast at 22,600,000 acres. This is a record high and maintains the upward trend which was continued for eight consecutive years. The first production report on soybeans will be made next month.

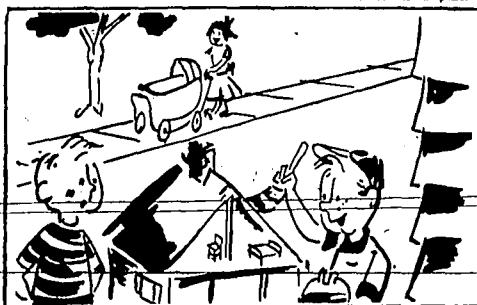

A record production of 119,600,000 tons of hay was forecast. This is 10 per cent greater than 1956 production of 108,700,000 tons.

Subs Sighted Near Islands

MANILA, July 11 (AP)—The Manila Daily Bulletin said today submarines of "unfriendly" nations frequently penetrate Philippine territorial waters on their way to and from the South China sea.

The newspaper, which described the source of its information as a "ranking" Philippine naval officer, said the submarines possibly belong to either Russia or communist China. The reds are known to have established a huge submarine base on Hainan island off China.

The officer said the submarines have taken the routes through Philippine seas obviously to avoid contact with the powerful U. S. seventh fleet which is on patrol duty in the Formosa strait.

He added the submarines appeared to have access to classified information on naval operations here since they knew just where to pass through at a given time. He did not say how the information was leaked.

Web of Inflation Catches Large Part Of Population; Dollar Shrinks Smaller

NEW YORK, July 11 (AP)—A retired couple find they must scrimp to live—although their nestegg once promised ease, even luxury.

A factory worker or an office worker finds his pay check pleasantly faster than 10 years ago—and then his bills for the same goods and services climb out of sight.

These are aspects of what goes by the name of inflation—more money around but its purchasing power dwindling.

Some feel better off under inflation, but those who save for a rainy day, those who want to build new homes, factories or schools, fear that what we have now may grow into chronic inflation and become the big bad wolf of our age.

Economists and politicians are squabbling over whether what we are seeing today is really "inflation" at all or a wage-price spiral that is just one of the consequences of past inflation.

Here are some definitions of classic inflation, of hidden inflation, of creeping inflation, of wage push, demand-pull, and profit-push inflation.

Classic inflation is the kind we had during World War II when new money and credit was created in great quantities to finance the defense effort, while output of consumer goods was cut sharply. It resulted in too much money chasing too few goods. To keep prices from rising sharply the government tried direct controls on wages and prices.

Hidden inflation is when prices aren't changed but the quality or size of a product deteriorates—the five-cent candy bar goes pygmy.

Creeping inflation is a term coined to describe what has been happening the last year or so—prices go up a nickel or a dime at a time first on one thing and then on another, so that the purchasing power of a dollar dwindles. In terms of purchasing power of the 1940, or "100-cent" dollar, the 1956 dollar bought only 50.5 cents worth and today's buys only 49.6 cents worth.

Wage-push inflation is what management calls the present situation where, it says, rising wage scales are pushing costs, and hence prices, always higher.

Profit-push inflation is what labor officials call the same situation. They say the urge to pile up record profits, rather than hold price lines, is the villain.

Demand-pull inflation is when supply would seem adequate except for unusual demand. This term is used today to describe what is happening to money.

The money managers point out that actually there is more money around and more credit and debt on the books than ever before in peacetime. But the demand for goods, particularly capital goods, and for credit to finance their purchase is even greater—thus pulling interest rates up, and also the price of these capital goods too.

Because money is being kept tight, the money managers say there is no "classic inflation" now.

But the average man just knows that prices are going up and the dollar shrinking—by whatever name you call it.

State Miners Plan to Urge U.S. Program

BOISE, July 11 (AP)—An official of the Idaho Mining association said yesterday that an expression of the urgent need for a long-range "minerals program" likely will top the declaration of policy which the group will consider at its 34th annual meeting.

The convention begins Sunday in Sun Valley, and will run through Tuesday.

Several topics will be discussed. The association adopts a declaration of policy each two years. In addition to the materials program expression, Harry W. Marsh, association secretary, said the declaration is likely to cover such topics as labor-management relations, improved educational program and problems of air and water pollution.

"But the emphasis undoubtedly will be on the minerals program," he said. "The association appears to favor revision of federal policies so as to encourage exploration for and development of mineral deposits and create stability within the industry."

Idaho is one of the leaders in the mining industry and has long been an active participant, Marsh said. "In the more to stabilize the effect of foreign competition on domestic mine operators."

Adoption of the declaration of policy will come Tuesday afternoon at the final business session, when officers also will be elected. Principal speaker at the Monday program will be Gov. Robert E. Smylie.

Hearings Are Near on Plan To Aid Mines

WASHINGTON, July 11—With an unexpected reversal of position, the house ways and means committee agreed Tuesday to schedule public hearings early next month on the administration's proposed new excise import tax on lead and zinc.

The committee, after meeting in executive session, agreed to hear testimony from representatives of the lead and zinc mining states, including Idaho, Aug. 1 and 2.

The announcement of a public hearing was made despite a request two weeks ago from a bi-partisan group of 15 mining state legislators asking that the lead-zinc proposal be heard in executive sessions to speed it through congress.

However several Rocky Mountain congressmen indicated their gratification that a hearing date had been set.

Rep. John J. Dempsey, D., N. M., credited the united support of western state congressmen of both parties with getting prompt committee action on the minerals legislation.

He said he hoped a bill could be passed this session that would either provide for a special import excise tax on a sliding scale or would put limitations on foreign metals that are imported in time to reverse the mounting number of mine closures.

T. F. Soroptimist Club Enrolls People Over 60 for New Club

The Twin Falls Soroptimist club is enrolling members now for a "Golden Age" club designed for all over 60 years of age living in the Twin Falls area.

The direct object of the club is to "promote entertainment for the members." According to Mrs. A. P. Oslund, chairman of the Soroptimist committee on the Golden Age club, the organization will provide "an excuse for community oldsters to get out of the house."

Club activities will be primarily centered around recreation. The club will have parties every two weeks with such functions as pot-luck dinners, dances, cards and games, and outside entertainment.

First official member is Mrs. Emma Brobst, who came to Twin Falls recently from Portland, Ore., following the death of her husband, is 68 years old. She described the Golden Age club as "the most wonderful thing that ever happened to us in Portland."

She said the club had some 100 members and both men and women were active in the organization.

The first meeting of the Twin Falls Golden Age club will be held at the recreation hall located in Harmon park at 4:30 p.m. Sunday. All eligible people interested in joining the organization are invited to attend. They will be dinner guests of the Soroptimist club.

Interested persons may receive additional information from the Soroptimist publicity chairman, Mrs. John Leiser, by phoning 2560 during the week, or calling Mrs. Oslund on Saturday at 505.

Huge Balloon Sighted Over New England

BOSTON, July 11 (AP)—A high-flying object which soared over New England yesterday, alarming hundreds of residents and prompting the air force to send up a jet fighter plane was identified today as a weather balloon.

Officials of the air force Capt. bridge research center at Hanscom air force base in Bedford said it was a "Moby Dick" a high altitude balloon used to record weather data in the upper stratosphere.

A spokesman said the balloon was launched in Vernalis, Calif. by the air force and could be deflated from the ground by "merely pushing a button."

Police and newspaper switchboards from New Haven, Conn., to Brunswick, Me., were deluged by phone calls with residents reporting "flying saucers," a Russian device and "an earth satellite which got away."

Scientists said the device was drifting at a height of about 100,000 feet. One "Moby Dick" came to earth in Spain, according to a spokesman. He said most of the balloons were never glimpsed by the nation's residents since their high altitude usually kept them far above clouds and haze in the sky. Over New England last night the skies were unusually clear.

Real name of Melba, the famous opera singer, was Helen Porter Mitchell.

CHICAGO, July 11 (AP)—Robert Holmes was quiet enough but his shirt was too loud. Holmes and two others managed to elude police for six hours yesterday by hiding behind false walls of a Chicago theater. But a policeman spotted Holmes' brightly striped shirt through a hole in the wall and arrested the trio on burglary charges.

Valley Airman Hurt Overseas

A Three Creek flyer in the U. S. air force was reported Thursday to be recovering from injuries received when he and three other airmen parachuted from a falling light bomber in England.

Mrs. H. L. Wurst said she had received a letter from Capt. William J. Boyle, 35, a native of Three Creek, telling of the accident and reporting he was recovering from head and back injuries.

Boyle, instructor pilot on the bomber, a Tornado based at Schulthorpe, England, said he and two other crew members bailed out and landed with minor injuries. A third, he said, underwent a leg amputation after the accident.

The plane, on an extended training flight was climbing at an altitude of 23,000 feet when an engine exploded. After the crew bailed out, the aircraft crashed, exploding and digging a crater 15 to 30 yards across, on a farm near Holt, near the North Norfolk coast.

MR. AND MRS. DALE R. DOPITA

Gloria Webb and Dale Dopita Wed. In Church Ritual

Gloria Webb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Webb, Polson, Mont., and Dale R. Dopita, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dopita, exchanged wedding vows in a double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the LDS tabernacle.

Bishop Karl Brown performed the ceremony before a background arch of ivy flanked with baskets of blue delphiniums and white daisies.

Sharon Miller sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Helen Meyer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of lace and nylon tulle. The lace bodice was fashioned with a pleated tulle yoke. The skirt was designed of tulle threaded with lace. Her tiara of seed pearls and sequins held a fingertip veil of nylon illusion net edged with white lace. The bouquet she carried of stephanotis was centered with an orchid.

Nola Webb, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a pale blue net gown over tulle, and Marie Newman, wearing pastel pink net over tulle, all carried matching bouquets of delphiniums.

Harold Hawk, Redondo Beach, Calif., was best man. Ushers were Alan Webb, Spokane, and Larry Webb, brothers of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose an aqua sheath dress with pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink feathered carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of navy blue lace with white accessories. Her corsage was of white feathered carnations.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church recreation room. The refreshment table was covered with a hand-embroidered lace tablecloth over blue. A four-tiered cake topped by a miniature bride and groom centered the table. Roses and leather fern circled the cake at the base. Flower arrangements were made by Mrs. A. D. Miller, Mrs. Fred Dopita, Jerome, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, served the cake. Mrs. A. Hamilton presided at the punch bowl.

Rita Ann Webb, sister of the bride, attended the guest book. Mrs. Bernell Skinner and Mrs. Lloyd Webb, cousin of the bride, displayed the gifts. They were assisted by Eudora Webb and Mrs. Donald Webb, Murtaugh, aunts of the bride. Others assisting were Modine Alley, Patty Arrington and Ann Stokes.

For her travel ensemble the new Mrs. Dopita chose a yellow lace sheath dress with matching jacket and white accessories. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

"How old should a child be to have a party?" Just as soon as he knows what a party is, or means, he can enjoy it. The usual way is to allow a guest for each year of the child's life. A 3-year-old can have three guests, and the number can be increased on and on until the young person is of an age where a party has social overtones and financial major chords and so becomes a serious matter.

Parties for the young children can be helpful in teaching them good manners, the values of friendship, the obligations of it and the duties of hospitality. These can be big words but they can be reduced to the simple terms of "come to my house," and crackers and milk, or on high occasions, ice-cream cones and birthday cake.

The party has family implications, too. Everybody cooperates for the occasion. The honor of the family is at stake. The hour must be shared with the family with its best foot forward. That creates the family spirit of all for one and one for all.

A child's birthday anniversary sets him apart in the seat of honor for the day. Special privileges like choosing his guests, choosing his favorite cake, sitting at the head of the table are his for the day. Given these honors, the birthday child has a glow of importance, a feeling of being loved and wanted that lasts for a long time, even down through the years.

Birthday parties call for gifts. All children love getting things they would not usually get, especially when they are wrapped in gay paper and tied with gayer bows. These are very simple for the little ones but as the children grow older they become more and more a matter of family contribution. The idea is that a birthday is the day set aside for the joyful celebration of a child's coming. That can add stature to any child, old or young.

Parties call for games and these must be planned for as carefully as the refreshments. The party room

MIKE SKILES TAKES JUNIOR STATE GOLF TOURNAMENT TITLE

Foye Wins Boys' Crown and Melville Is Pee wee Champ In Exchange Club's Meet

Mike Skiles put together rounds of 36, 35 and 36 Wednesday to easily cop the Exchange club's state junior golf tournament here Wednesday. Trailing by one stroke after Tuesday's play, the Burley youth overtook medalist Norm Jorgensen, Idaho Falls, in the first nine holes of the final 27 and won going away. He had a 54-hole total of 217. In the other divisions of meet, Loren Foye took top spot in the boys' division and Keith Melville was the pee wee champion.

Meetings Play Part In Card, Yank Surge

Two meetings, one in February and the other six weeks ago, have been the key factors in putting the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals at the head of the major league pennant races. But will the same pattern be followed in the second half of the season and result in the first World Series between these clubs since 1943?

Meeting No. 1 resulted in the 13-player transaction Feb. 19 that sent pitchers Bobby Shantz and Art Ditmar from Kansas City to the Yanks. At the close of last season, Shantz and Ditmar had a combined record of 14 victories and 29 defeats. Bobby 2-7 and Art 12-22. Their aggregate mark for the Yanks now is 14-2, Shantz 9-1 and Ditmar 5-1.

Since Whitey Ford was out for most of the initial half of the campaign with a sore shoulder and Don Larsen and Bob Turley were slow in getting started, the Yanks likely would be trailing instead of 2 1/2 lengths ahead of the second-place Chicago White Sox if they had not come up with the momentum trade.

Meeting No. 2 involved St. Louis Manager Fredie Hutchinson and top Cardinal officials. With the team in fifth place, seven games off the pace, it was decided that "Hutch" go with his young players.

So rookie Eddie Kasko was given the third base job, third sacker Ken Boyer was shifted to centerfield and Joe Cunningham, who had been behind Stan Musial at first base, moved into the right field post.

The Cards got excellent pitching from bonus baby Von McDaniel 4-0, Larry Jackson 10-4, Sam Jones 6-3, Willard Schmidt 7-1 and Lindy McDaniel 8-4. The blend boosted the club into first place by 3 games. Here's the way the other contenders shape up at this time games behind in parentheses:

American League
Chicago—(3 1/2) The indefinite loss of slugger Larry Doby will hurt. But the Sox have started to "go" again, winning their last five in a row.
Off their first half showing, the Red Sox, Indians and Tigers, who have been given a chance by some experts, don't figure to make a run for the pennant. Boston trails New York by 10 games, Cleveland by 12 and Detroit by 12 1/2.

National League
Milwaukee—(2 1/2) Lew Burdette won only six games in the first half figures to improve. The loss of first baseman Joe Adcock leg fracture is a damaging blow.
Philadelphia—(3 1/2) This surprise club could go all the way if Robin Roberts starts winning. The big righthander has won only six games and lost 11. The comeback of Curt Blimmons (8-4) has been instrumental.
Cincinnati—(3 1/2) Pitching is the big reason for the Reds' recent demise. They will need improved hurling to move higher.
Brooklyn—(5 1/2) Outfielder Duke Snider has had a bad year and infielder Pee Wee Reese is showing his age (38 on July 23). Pitchers Don Newcombe (9-9) and Glen Labine, lower in last five are lagging behind their 1956 gain.

Discrimination Forces Links Sale
FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., July 11 (AP)—The Fort Lauderdale city commission has voted over the protest of Mayor John V. Russell to sell the municipally owned golf course for a little over half its appraised value to keep Negroes from using it. The Fort Lauderdale Men's Golf association, organized a year ago to operate the course if it were sold, was successful bidder with an offer of $502,400.

Federal Judge Joseph P. Lieb of Miami ruled recently Negroes must be allowed to use the links.

Picnic Set

Twin Falls chapter of the Idaho Outdoor association will have its annual picnic at 1 p. m. Sunday at the Birch glenn, immediately beyond the South Hills checking station.

All members and their friends are urged to attend. A resolution on the deer herd in the south hills will be made for recommendation to the state fish and game department.

Restrictions For Spawning Streams Set

The Idaho fish and game department Thursday reminded salmon fishermen that spawning closures are set to go into effect soon on many important streams.

Ross Leonard, director, said these are too numerous to list in detail but fishermen should check the official regulations before going out after salmon from now on. "Since spawning takes place in the various waters at widely different times, these closures have to be set individually," he explained. "They are all listed in the printed regulations on the back of the fishing map, and can be checked under the county listings."

He also reminded fishermen that some stream sections that have been closed to fishing for this species will soon reopen. Outstanding among this group are the south fork of the Salmon below Knox, the east fork of the south fork, and Johnson creek.

He said waters closed to fishing for salmon may or may not remain open to fishing for other species.

"If the regulations merely specify a closing to fishing for salmon, only the water remains open for trout fishing," he said. However, some are closed to all kinds of fishing, and these waters must be avoided by all fishermen, he added.

Jorgensen, who had fashioned a 108 score for medalist honors, couldn't keep up Tuesday and Robb Smith, Twin Falls, sank a five-foot putt on the last hole to nose into the runner-up spot. Smith finished with a 222 score and Jorgensen had 223 to tie with Warren Jensen, Burley, for third place. HOUSTON, Tex., July 11 (AP)—Babe Hiskey, youngest and perhaps the best of the golf-tournament winning Hiskey brothers from Pocatello, plans to enroll at University of Houston next fall.

Eighteen-year-old Babe, who won the Idaho state junior and amateur championships, visited his brother Jimmy, who will be a senior next fall, has been a key man on Houston's national collegiate golf champions the past two years.

Babe won the Texas-Oklahoma junior title two weeks ago at Wichita Falls, Tex.

The oldest of the brothers, Marlon, died in a plane crash in 1956. He had been one of the nation's finest amateurs while playing at North Texas state.

Move to Make New York Into Open Territory

ST. LOUIS, July 11 (AP)—Barnard Commissioner Ford Frick, re-elected to a 7-year term at $65,000 per, thinks it is "inconceivable" that New York should become a one-club town.

In the face of consistent reports that the Brooklyn Dodgers are going to Los Angeles and the New York Giants to San Francisco, the commissioner expressed a "purely personal opinion" Tuesday on the New York situation.

"I think it is inconceivable that an area with a population of 15 million should have only one franchise," he said. "If the Dodgers and Giants should move—and I am not saying they will—I think the territory should be left open for another team. I think it should be declared 'open territory' for any league."

"Brooklyn was always considered a separate franchise. That went for the schedule, the radio and TV rights and everything else. Why shouldn't we still consider it that way. It wouldn't make any difference if the team that came in would be in the National or American league."

"Understand this is my personal feeling, not any official statement from my office."

Frick said baseball law often is obscure on such matters as territorial rights and there were several legal factors involved.

"I am sure legal steps will be taken to establish definite rulings before any franchise move is made," he said.

The matter of franchise move came up at the National league meeting, shortly before the 62-year-old Frick was re-elected at the joint meeting of the two leagues for a term running to Sept. 21, 1962. The current term expires in 1958.

The National rejected a proposal by George V. McLaughlin, banker and former police commissioner of New York for a New York franchise in Queens at the old World's Fair site in Flushing Meadows. Originally, McLaughlin asked a franchise only if the Dodgers and Giants moved but later he asked for the franchise no matter what happened.

A report Cleveland would move to Minneapolis by acquiring the Giants' interests in Minneapolis was denied by Cleveland officials.

Movie Producer Turns Out to Be Hero In Complex 'Cloak and Dagger' Story

NEW YORK, July 11 (AP)—A top producer of frothy Hollywood musicals has turned up as the hero in a real-life spy story more fantastic than movie fiction.

Boris Morros, a Russian-born musical prodigy, appears to have operated for at least 13 years as a U. S. agent within a Soviet spy ring. And on at least one occasion, he walked a double-dealing tightrope to the heart of the conspiracy—a Moscow spy meeting. The espionage network is crumbling today before his testimony to a federal grand jury here.

Morros' part in the spy network was shadowy when the first arrests were made here in January. U. S. Attorney Paul W. Williams said this week he is "a loyal American citizen who has been working for the government."

By the dry-worded testimony of two espionage indictments he is also an incredibly brave American.

For a time he spied between acts of his song and dance movies. For almost 10 years he appears to have covered furtive meetings with Russian spies and American traitors in the champagne party atmosphere of a "big deal" man vagabonding across Europe and America.

Old-time associates figure the 62-year-old Morros also had a built-in spy cover—the personality of a gay braggart whose life history has at times seemed a jumble of fact and States from trusted U. S. intelligence jobs.

Two other Americans, former New York Broker Alfred K. Stern and his wife, Martha, daughter of a former U. S. ambassador, the late William E. Dodd, have been fined $50,000 for contempt for refusing to return from Mexico to testify before the spy jury.

At least 14 Russian nationals, in addition to the now-dead Beria, have been named publicly as spies. A number of them had held embassy or consular posts in the United States.

Morros, who has risked his life for nearly a generation, can be addressed today "Care of the U. S. attorney," Williams will say only that he is "in the United States."

He was born in Czarist Russia, Jan. 1, 1895. His father was conductor of the Imperial symphony orchestra and Morros later succeeded him in that post. He had mastered the piano at the age of 4, went on the cello at 6 and later learned to play nearly every instrument of the orchestra.

In 1922, Morros left communist Russia for the United States and became a citizen. For a time he was music director of several New York theaters. He went to Hollywood when the talkies began and was for many years music director of Paramount pictures. He started his own producing company in 1939 and through the war years alternated between musical gaudy and government training films. His last recorded production was "Carnegie Hall" in 1947.

The two recorded indictments tell the following story of the spy ring and Morros' part in it:

Beria summoned Soble to Moscow in 1940 and sent him to the United States on a spy mission. He arrived, by the way of Japan, in 1941. In 1944, Morros was summoned from Hollywood to a New York meeting with Vasili M. Zublin, then about to leave his Washington embassy post, and Soble. Zublin is said to have told Morros he would receive his further instructions from Soble.

The indictments record no further meetings between Soble and Morros until 1947, in New York. From that time on, he figures prominently in the meetings and passage of spy documents between all the alleged conspirators. He met Soble in Paris in June, 1949, and a month later in Zurich, Switzerland.

In February, 1950, the indictments say, this capitalist refugee from Russian communism "did meet . . . in an apartment in Moscow" with Beria's spy lieutenant and two other Russians.

In 1951, 1952 and 1953, Morros met with Soble, the Zlatovskis and various Russians, mostly in Vienna, sometimes in New York. The last meeting of which note is made was with Soble in New York in October, 1954.

Prices Creep Up on Meat; Few Bargains

By The Associated Press
Meat prices continue to inch up, but the budget-conscious housewife with a family to feed can still find occasional bargains.
Best buys for the coming week are undoubtedly chuck roast (with the bone in) and poultry.
Backyard barbecue enthusiasts will find prices of sirloin, steak and chops a pound in many parts of the country this week. Lower in price—and tops in flavor for charcoal broiling—are ribs steaks, currently featured by some eastern food chains as week-end specials.
Chickens Cheap
Chickens for frying or broiling are up one to four cents a pound in most areas but prices are still comfortably low.
Small turkeys are being heavily promoted by supermarkets this week. Turkeys of all types and sizes are definitely on the bargain list; farmers last month were getting less than 24 cents a pound for the birds, the lowest price since 1942. Expectations are that this year's turkey crop will surpass the 1956 record of 77 million birds by a hefty five per cent.
As poultry prices drift lower, beef, pork and lamb prices continue to climb.

Vegetable Buys
Best buys on the produce counter this week include green and yellow squash, potatoes, cucumbers, spinach, carrots, celery and eastern onions.
Peaches and watermelons from Georgia are abundant and moderately priced—the nation's peach crop is expected to be the largest in 10 years. Strawberries and blueberries are in plentiful supply and there's an abundance of citrus fruits, oranges and grapefruit from Florida, Valencia oranges from California.

One ray of hope for consumers: Lower prices of feed grains are cutting the cost of producing meat, milk and eggs. At Chicago, feed corn is currently selling for about 113 1/2 a bushel, down about 19 cents from a year ago.

Russia Seems Ahead of U.S. In Atom Race

WASHINGTON, July 11—Soviet Russia may be winning the first round of the atomic energy "kilo-watt race" with the United States, congressional economists reported yesterday.

They added that future prospects of Soviet nuclear power development cannot be viewed with complacency.

This evaluation of Russia's program for industrial uses of the atom was contained in a 150-page study of Soviet economic growth, which in the main was found to be capable of supporting "a formidable military machine."

The appraisal was prepared for the Senate subcommittee on Economic Affairs by the Library of Congress legislative service under the direction of Dr. Charles S. Sheldahl.

The report said Russian heavy industry has shown a greater rate of growth than U. S. industry, but "at a great cost to the Soviet people" in terms of benefits, living standards and human life.

And in spite of pressure to spur Soviet industrial growth at all costs, Russia's gross national output of all goods and services was reported to be still only about one-third that of this nation.

Plan Expansion
The prospect of Russia emerging as the world's major producer of nuclear-generated electrical energy was based on reported Kremlin plans to complete a number of large generating plants of a half-million or more kilowatts capacity by 1960.

The only comparable operation in the United States, the study pointed out, is the large-scale power reactor now nearing completion at Shippingport, Pa., near Pittsburgh.

The Shippingport plant, due to open this year, will produce 60,000 kilowatts from at first and 100,000 kilowatts later.

U. S. Has Program
The U. S. program of large power reactors contemplates construction of an additional five large plants in the next three or four years.

"The Soviet union's said to have an equivalent program which will turn out even more kilowatts by 1960, but no building sites have been opened for inspection, except for a small 5,000-kilowatt plant near Moscow established as early as 1954," the report continued.

The Russian program was reported to contemplate "very large stations in the 400,000 to 600,000 kilowatt range" near Moscow and Leningrad, in the Ural mountains and at other unannounced points.

The volcano Popocatepetl is 40 miles south of Mexico City. It is sometimes moderately active, but has not erupted to a damaging extent since 1940.

Action Is Started On Death of Man

SHOSHONE, July 11—Suits have been filed in district court here by Mrs. Laura E. Wilmoth against the General Insurance company of America to collect damages as a result of the death of her husband, Floyd Wilmoth, on Feb. 9, 1956.

Wilmoth was killed by asphyxiation from carbon monoxide in a sheep camp while employed by John Arkooch. The gas came from a small wood stove, the complaint states.

Arkooch, the complaint states, had an insurance policy with the company which was to protect his employees from bodily injury, sickness or disease.

The action seeks $415 funeral expenses at six per cent interest since the day of the accident and attorney's fees plus cost of the suit. Murphy and Schwartz, Shoshone, are attorneys for Mrs. Wilmoth.

Payment Sought

Balance of $657.38 allegedly due on a promissory note is sought in a complaint filed Wednesday in Twin Falls district court by the Professional Adjustment bureau against W. H. Underwood.

The bureau claims the note was given the Magic Valley Memorial hospital June 7, 1952. Interest totaling $210.36 and attorney fees are also sought.

The bureau is represented by H. N. Jewell, Twin Falls attorney.

McLemore Surveys Life; Finds Poll-Takers Are Everywhere

BY HENRY MCLEMORE
NEW YORK, N. Y.—Have you been surveyed lately?

No? Then you must live in an igloo with a quarantine sign on the door. Everybody else is being surveyed almost constantly. The latest figures show that 10,000 surveys of some sort or other are being conducted all the time in America, and those not being surveyed are being polled.

The chances of a citizen (a survey shows) being asked what he thinks and how he feels about everything under the sun are five times as great as his getting soap in his eyes when he washes his face.

No matter your age, or what your trade or profession, there are others who are anxious, to the point of pacing the floor, to know your opinions.

Do you prefer dark bread to light? Do you wear a cap indoors or only when watching a lacrosse game? Would you like refrigerator doors to open from the right or left, and how do you feel about statehood for Alaska?

Do you believe it is true that career women make as good mothers as women who can't typewrite? Has the President lost popularity with you since his change in policy on powdered eggs for Tasmania? Do you approve of babies under four "going steady"? One survey I haven't seen is one showing how much these survey people make a year. It must be a staggering sum. The law pays well, and most doctors are rich, but if I were a young man I'd pass both these professions by to start a survey company. It must be the waves, and best way to get rich in a hurry.

With 180 million people in the United States, and with the population growing by leaps and bounds, there is very little chance of the field becoming overcrowded. I have a good mind to hang out a sign with Ace Survey company on it, and pick up some extra money.

The training required must be almost nil. About the only drawbacks to the job I can think of are stammering and stuttering. These would slow down asking questions. A beginner with a good pair of legs would be as efficient as a veteran who couldn't move from door to door quite so quickly.

You could teach your help in five minutes. Show them how to ring a doorbell and then blurt out: "How much do you spend each year on life insurance, cosmetics, and ping-pong balls?" or some equally sought after information.

A first analysis of the popularity of these multitudinous surveys is likely to lead one to the conclusion that our country has become a country of snappers. But I don't believe that's right. I believe all of us read the results just as we listen to gossip, and enjoy it.

I'll admit I do. At the same time, I'll admit I don't know why I do. But the fact that only one American poultry farmer out of ten has Ravel's Bolero in his album collection (I saw that the other day) fascinates me. I even wished at the time that there had been a follow-up survey to determine why this lack of interest in Ravel by chicken-growers.

I get surveyed quite often, and enjoy it. I'm sorry when I am asked only a question or two. The other day a surveyor (I guess that's what they are called) got me out of the shower to find out whether I preferred breakfast cereals that offered a prize in every box, or ones with cut-outs of jet planes on the box. Before the man got away I had expressed an opinion on wash-em-yourself suits, coffee in paper cups, and the low quality of this year's crop of Brazil nuts.

Maybe surveys are habit-forming. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)
